

Mgr. Klára Pavlínová has been teaching English all her professional life. She started working at the FSci in 2007 – first as a lecturer, later as the Deputy Head of the Language Department. In 2015 she became the Head of the Language Department.

In her work, she focuses mainly on teaching English for Academic Purposes, ELT methodology, and promoting learner autonomy. She also teaches ELT methodology and provides teacher training at The Faculty of Arts.

She has a degree in history, education, and English. In 2019 she received the DELTA diploma in ELT.